Thanks. I got the power point yesterday too and will review it today. I'll keep my ears open and if I hear anything about this meeting I'll let you know - but it looks like you guys are the ones in the know!

FYI. (Ben may have sent this to you.) On our end, Del is trying to see about coordinating such a call but not sure how much progress was made yesterday.

An advance call among ourselves is probably a good idea. I'm copying my colleagues in ORC and suggesting they take the lead in setting up a call. (I'm in a plane ready to leave for Dallas for two nights for a Superfund Directors meeting.)

Should we have a call prior. I had a few questions. Had some answered but a few remaining. I can do off line if that is easier.
